Governor's Reason For Pardoning Ed Alvey.

In the Jefferson County Circuit Court Ed Alvey, a noted Louisville gambler, was convicted, fined and sentenced to the penitentiary for 2 years. February 27 Gov. Beckham granted him a full pardon.

So much having been said regarding this act of the Governor, we give his reason.

"Reasons for pardon of Ed Alvey: This is the most barfaced and inexcusable case of judicial and political persecution that ever came before my notice. By a bold and shameful conspiracy this man Alvey has been selected as the helpless victim, while others equally as guilty or more so, who seem to bask in the sunshine of official favor, are allowed absolute immunity from prosecution in the Jefferson Criminal Court. Has the prosecution been animated by an earnest and honest desire to stamp out all gambling in the city of Louisville? If so, then they would have met with the hearty co-operation of the Chief Executive in their efforts, and I stand ready now, whenever and wherever it may be in my power to aid the officers of the law, where they are honest, in seeking to enforce the law against gambling, without partiality or favor to anyone."

"Has such been the case in the recent indictments and trial in Louisville? The record before me and the information I have received certainly do not show it. Why is it that indictments have not been returned against the most notorious gambler in the city? And why is it that indictments against others have been dismissed under a corrupt bargain that they would be given immunity if they would give evidence against this man and one Miles. Is Alvey made the object of particular vengeance because he had become a dangerous rival in the business to some others?

"Gambling is a crime punished by severe penalties under our statutes and it ought to be stamped out if possible by a rigid and impartial enforcement of the law. I would gladly see the city of Louisville freed from this vice, but if it is allowed at all, then I would say it would be preferable under the principles of competition rather than monopoly."

"This warfare seems to have been inspired, not by an intention to suppress gambling, but by a desire to destroy competition in that business. The papers before me show beyond doubt that this man was convicted upon evidence secured by one of the most infamous bargains ever tolerated in any court."

"One of the employed prosecutors, who has been conspicuous in his professed advocacy of honest elections and has been Peter the Hermit in this one-eyed crusade against the gambling vice, according to the papers before me, negotiated the deal, claiming to act with the sanction and approval of the court."

"By this agreement, which by the proceedings in court recently, seemed to be fully carried out, these men were dismissed from the charges against them, and by their testimony a verdict was secured against Alvey, who, either by reason of his competitive qualities or his political affiliations, seems to have incurred the especial hatred and animosity of the prosecution."

"I have filed before me, in what I am assured is the handwriting of the Prosecuting Attorney before referred to, affidavits which he prepared for these men to sign after the agreement was made. I copy the first paragraph:

State of Kentucky, s. e.—Jefferson county: The adjutant, Logan Schwann, says this affidavit is made of his own free will and accord and without solicitation of anyone. He says he has been promised no reward of immunity from punishment on trial under the indictment pending against him in the Jefferson Circuit Court.

"If this handwriting is genuine, as I believe it is, then he sought to make these men swear to what he said they knew to be false. Gambling is bad enough, but perjury and subornation of perjury are worse, and it is startling that such methods should be resorted to for the conviction of anyone."

"I, therefore, as a reluctance to the character of such a prosecution, and not as a condemnation to the offense of gambling, which I am ever ready to aid in suppressing, grant this pardon to Alvey upon the assurance from him that he will not again violate the law."

J. C. W. BECKHAM,

Governor."

BOURBON COUNTY ITEMS

The March term of the Bourbon Circuit Court convened Monday.

Mr. Ed. F. Sims, of Paris, left for Manila, Philippine Islands, on a prospecting tour.

An offering of more than $200 for Foreign Missions was made at the Paris Christian church on March 3.

There was a severe wind storm in the county on Sunday, 3rd. At Centerville a colored camp meeting was in progress. The wind poked the church building up and completely turned it around. The pastor happened to be just in the midst of an exhortation describing the end of the world, and when the sudden reversing of the building came the congregation thought the end had come. It is said the confessions of sins made during the excitement covered everything from chicken stealing to highway robbery.

The old Harvey Kerr house, near North Middletown, owned by Mr. Henry Berry was burned March 3. The wind was blowing a hurricane, and the fire spread to the surrounding fields, and Roger Talbot lost a considerable amount of fencing.

There is a well developed plan on foot to build an electric railroad from Paris to Sharnburg, calling at North Middletown and Flat Rock. The promoters are said to be R. J. Neely, Mr. Henry Powers and Mr. T. Earl Ashbrook, of Paris, and Mr. Smith, of Harrison county, and Mr. Alexander, of Bath county. A committee was appointed by the court to confer with these gentlemen, relative to the right of way.

Prof. Wilson, of Lexington, Md., suffered terribly from neuralgia of the stomach and indigestion for thirteen years and after the doctors had failed to cure him they led him on morphine. A friend advised the use of Kidol Dyspepsia Cure and after taking a few bottles of it he says, "It has cured me entirely. I can't say too much for Kidol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat." F. Race Track Sold.

The Kentucky Association race track at Lexington has been sold to Arthur Biss for $200,000. There are 21.16 acres in the tract.

Municipal Ownership.

Carter, H. Harrison was nominated for Mayor of Chicago for the third term by the Democratic city convention Tuesday. There was no opposition to his re-nomination, the nomination being made by acclamation and great cheering. The platform adopted strongly favors the ultimate municipal ownership of all public utilities, including street railways and lighting plants, and included a resolution of sympathy for the Bess.

In the Senate Vice President Rossvelt sharply rebuked the galleries which had-on applauding him when he appears.

OH YES, I AM A SOUTHERN GIRL.

John Uri Lloyd's Lost War Ballad is Found.

Brown McClelland, the 15-year-old boy of Mr. and Mrs. T. N. McClelland, of 231 East High street, has found the war ballad beginning "Oh yes, I am a Southern girl," two stanzas of which are quoted from memory by John Uri Lloyd in "Stringtown on the Pike," and for which Mr. Lloyd has offered a reward of $100. Mr. Lloyd made an effort to find the ballad in order to quote the exact words, and failing to do so depended upon his memory. Young Mr. McClelland read the article on the subject in last Sunday's Leader and instantly recalled that he had read the ballad in one of the family books. He found it in a book entitled "Southern Poems of the War," published in 1867 by a Baltimore printing house, and collected and arranged by Miss Emily V. Mason. The ballad is entitled "The Homespun Dress" and was sung to the air of "Bonnie Blue Flag." The name of the writer is not given in Miss Mason's book, and while the full text of the ballad will undoubtedly be appreciated by Mr. Lloyd the question of its authorship is unsettled. A copy of the ballad has been sent to Mr. Lloyd in Cincinnati. The Leader is permitted to copy it in full from the book. It follows:

THE HOMESPUN DRESS.

Air—Bonnie Blue Flag.
Oh, yes, I am a Southern girl,
And glory in the name.
And boast it with far greater pride
Than glistering wealth or fame.
We envy not the Northern girl
Her robes of beauty rare,
Though diamonds grace her snowy neck,
And pearls bedeck her hair.

Hurrah! Hurrah!
For the sunny South so dear,
Three cheers for the homespun dress
The Southern ladies wear.

The homespun dress is plain, I know,
My list is a meagre lot;
But then a Southern girl's Southern girl
For Southern rights will o
We stand our ground of our land
'Till death or 'till we die,
And we will not be led by the nose
We love the South, you know,
Chorus, etc.

New Northern goods are out of date
And so are old-fashioned fashions.
We Southern girls are content
With the good old Southern mode.
We stand our ground in the war,
For dear life, we've made
You see we'll not be led by the nose
The cut is the best behind.
Chorus, etc.

The soldier is the lad for me—
A brave heart I adore,
And when the sunny South is free,
I'll choose him over a lover true.
I'll choose him over a lover true,
From out that gallant band.
The soldier lad I love the best,
Still love my heart and hand.
Chorus, etc.

The Southern land is a glorious land,
And has a glorious cause,
Then cheer, three cheers for Southern rights,
And for the Southern boys.
We won't wear a bit of silk
A bit of Northern lace,
But make our homespun dresses up,
And wear them with a grace.
Chorus, etc.

And now, young man, a word to you
If you would win the fair,
Go to the fields where home calls,
And win your lady there.
Remember that our brightest smiles
Are for the true and brave,
And that our tears are all for those
Who fill a soldier's grave.
Chorus, etc.

—Lexington Leader.

The homespun can make the Southern Three win the hearts and strong arms of those who can eat and digest plenty of food. Kidol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and allows you to eat all the good food you want. If you suffer from indigestion, heartburn, belching or any other stomach trouble, this preparation can't help but do you good. The most sensitive stomach can take it. F. C. Dueran.

There are reports afloat that a negro who displayed some impudence has been roundly whipped and directed to leave the city. He is still here. An impudent man to women, be he white or black, deserves to be whipped.

"Who are you going to vote for?" This question was put this way to a reliable gentleman a few days ago. "Who am I going to vote for?" and to this question he responded: "I will vote for capable men. I won't vote for the man who himself drinks or the one who tempts others to drink." That man was exactly correct.

Word comes to us that John D. McIntyre, editor of the Bath County Democrat, is being urged to become a candidate for the Legislature from the counties of Bath and Rowan. Mr. McIntyre would make a capital representative who would have a mind of his own on all subjects. We are glad these counties are prevailing upon a sober, industrious, working man to represent them. Mr. McIntyre should yield to their requests and accept the nomination, which we believe would be unanimously tendered.

Some weeks ago we set some of our people going from the sentiment expressed showing we favored the construction of electric railroads to Mt. Sterling. Since then we have had occasion to investigate the effects of these roads on business interests in other towns under like circumstances and are confirmed in our belief that nothing would bring about better results in the way of low freight rates and increased business. Mt. Sterling can have a line like that to Sharpsburg, if it will act now, and if the city won't, then there will be another to come in after the rich plum.

Our Republican contemporaries would have the people to generally believe that in the Democratic Senatorial Committee meeting great unfairness was done. Well! That was a Democratic committee and it was Democrats that had submitted their claims to the Committee. And since each candidate was not agreed in his desires as to time and manner of holding conventions, one or the other must needs be disappointed. The fact is we submitted to the action of that committee—we expected nothing but fairness and if committee were unjust in their decisions they will be held to strict account, but as it is, all Democrats should be satisfied—should work hard for their choice of men and when the convention has decided we will all be agreed and will allow no outsider in any way to disturb our equilibrium, while we go onward to swell Democratic majorities.

Precinct Conventions in Senatorial District.

The Democratic District Committee for the Twenty-eighth Senatorial District, met at Winchester on Saturday afternoon to fix the time, place and manner of selecting a candidate for Senator. Precinct conventions will be held June 15 to select delegates to the district convention to be held in Paris, June 19. The district is composed of Clark, Bourbon and Montgomery counties.

WATER WORKS.

Some of our people have been agitated no little concerning flying reports regarding steps to be taken by the Water Works Company which might not be beneficial to the city. We did not believe the company would undertake any thing of this kind, for in the end it would be to their disadvantage.

The Committee to confer with the Water Company and report back to the Council has been seen and we are assured the people's interests will be well guarded.

The Company asked that the main from the standpipe be reduced from a 12 inch to a 10 inch pipe, but Mr. Nelson, Secretary for Kentucky and Tennessee Board of Fire Underwriters' Association, reports that a 10 inch main would not meet the requirements in order to give Mt. Sterling the best fire rates, and Mayor Baird having expected advice that a 10 inch main is not sufficient, this matter is settled by the company withdrawing the request for a 10 inch main.

Hydrants will be located by a committee consisting of one Councilman from each ward, and this committee will see to it that the city is fully protected.

We have interviewed the manager of the Water Company, and he assures us the city of Mt. Sterling will receive the best of water service and that it will be protected to that extent that we will get the very best insurance rate, and further, they are not seeking to get any advantages.

Economy will be used in the construction of the plant, but the water will be wholesome and sufficient to supply the city at a low rate for all purposes—protection, domestic and manufacturing interests.

"Lost in Egypt Co." a Clever One.

"Lost in Egypt" was the attraction last night at the City Opera House, and played to a large and well pleased audience. The play, like all melodramas of its kind, kept the audience continually on the "go." Robert H. Harris, as Knight Crier, gave an excellent portrayal of the gallant naval officer. Mr. Parkison, as Sammy Green, from the Bowery, kept the audience in screams of laughter. Also worthy of special mention are Jovita Erney, Nellie Gray, Jennie Burleigh, Mahal Drew and the Carlton sisters. The numerous specialties are all good and clean and the special scenes some of the finest ever seen in our Opera House. Mr. Dear Sir:—A few days ago I forwarded to your paper a copy of an article with reference to the Interstate Fair. Recognizing the fact that your city is perhaps the largest stock cattle and sheep market in the State, and that you are probably as well posted upon such subjects as any gentleman in the State, and will feel some interest in our fair which will give opportunity for the development of a general interest in live stock, we will be very glad to have you co-operate with us in our effort to make our Fair what we mean it to be—the greatest cattle show in America, barring neither the Kansas City nor Chicago shows.

Arrangements have been made between the Fair management and the Kentucky Live Stock Breeders' Association whereby the latter have undertaken the management of the live stock exhibit, and I will be very glad if you will put yourself in communication with Mr. Thos. A SILENT WITNESS.

Typewriting Machine Convicts a Wife—Murder in New Zealand.

A typewriter was the strongest witness for the prosecution in a case of attempted poisoning just tried in New Zealand, says the New York World.

The prisoner, Henry Vincent Syche, was charged with trying to murder his wife through the agency of Dr. Sherbrook Clayton.

The doctor told how he had received a typewritten letter describing a woman in chronic ill health who had said that she would "just as soon be dead as sick all the time."

The writer added that if the doctor should be called to attend this woman and if she should die $200 would be sent to him three months afterward. If the doctor agreed he was to advertise in the local paper for a dog cart. The police had the dog cart advertisement published, and almost immediately Syche's wife called on Dr. Clayton for treatment.

Syche himself called on the doctor and spoke about treatment for his wife, for whom, however, he seemed to have great affection.

Dr. Clayton thereupon showed Syche the typewritten letters he had received. The man betrayed himself by his agitation, but nothing was done by the police. The evidence was not all in.

There was only one person, however, who could describe the peculiarities of the machine in the prisoner's office and who could swear that no other machine could in probability have such a combination of peculiarities.

Syche confessed that there was a joint insurance policy for $200 on his own and his wife's life. He declared that he did not need money, that he and his wife loved each other deeply and that she had gone to Dr. Clayton of her own accord.

He was found guilty and sentenced to seven years in prison. This is the first time that a typewriter has been called in as a witness in a murder case.

SOME SLEEP UPSIDE DOWN.

Curious Habits of Sloths, Bats and Great Antaters.

There is one animal which lives entirely in trees, but is able to maintain its position during slumber without the least exercise of muscular force. This is the sloth, common in the forests of tropical America. Its long claws are so bent that they hook over the branches and allow the creature to hang upside down like an animated hammock. Curiously enough, the hammock appears to be a South American invention, and is universally employed by all the Indian tribes of the Amazon. Perhaps, observed this connection a writer in Pearson's Magazine, the primitive human dwellers in this region took to sleeping in hammocks, after observing the habits of the sloth.

The great antater, which is both a kinsman and fellow countryman of the sloth, has an enormous tail, which it uses in a very remarkable manner. Two of these animals were recently seen lying together asleep, and they had arranged their tails so cleverly that their whole bodies were hidden from view. The caudal covering afforded excellent protection from the weather, for the central, solid part of the tails acted as a kind of ridgepole over the highest part of the sleepers' bodies, so that the long fringes of hair sloped downward on each side like the thatch upon a roof.

Like the sloths, many kinds of bats sleep suspended by their hooked claws without any muscular exertion whatever. Some of the large fruit-eating bats of the tropics, which do not sleep in holes like the species common in southern latitudes, but which hang suspended to the branches of trees in the open air, adopt a position which it would be difficult to beat for economy and comfort. Gould's fruit-eating bat, common in the warmer parts of America, suspends itself upside down by one hind foot, and wraps its body in the tent-like folds of its wing membranes.

Wrinkles Come

To many a face which should still be smooth and fair. Worry doesn't bring them. There are no care and anxiety to follow the face. They are the signs of physical suffering, given by the hand of pain. It is the natural result of the diseases which affect the womanly organs that they write plainly the record of suffering on the face and form. The skin becomes sallow, the cheeks are sunken, the eyes look dull, the body falls away. No woman who values her health or good looks should neglect to use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for the womanly organs. It cures irregularity, inflammation, ulceration and female weakness. It lights up the eye, brightens the complexion, and rounds out the sunken curves of the body.

"I take great pleasure in recommending Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. Thomas. "I was troubled with bearing down pains in my back and hips, and I wrote to Dr. Pierce for advice. I tried his Favorite Prescription, and six bottles cured me. I feel like a new person, and I thank Dr. Pierce for my health. I feel a burden to my one without health. I have had a great many of my friends about the great medicine I took."

None But the Best.

It was a handsome, celluloid match case, silver tipped, that was handed the editor by Punch & Gatewood. Nothing neater and more appropriate with the advertisement printed thereon: "Stacy, Adams & Co., makers of the shoe, $5.00 and $6.00." These are the best shoes in make, stock and style that come to this market.

Judge L. G. Willis, of Sage, has returned from Washington, D. C., where he witnessed the inaugural ceremonies. Judge Willis went a site seeing and no man saw more than he. He saw the President hoist and smile. He went out to the ocean, managed to get a bottle of water, but to his distress he broke enroute for home. Saw many Democrats in the large crowd at inauguration, and even some colored people were hawking for Bryan. He returned strong in the Democratic faith.

The friends of Mrs. L. Dunston will be pleased to learn of her recovery from grip, at her home in Mt. City, Mo., through the use of Dr. Miles' Nervine and Pills.

State Treasurer Hagar has appointed Judge Day, of Louisville, Assistant State Treasurer. For over a year Mr. Day has been a member of the Democratic City and County Executive Committee and chairman of the Forty-fifth legislative district.

SUMMER COON.

March 5, 1901.—A hot number from the Phillips, times looking up a mong the boxes a big string of rascals all ready booked for the p-y-e shops this summer, no trouble to get a drink or too for now, and the Boxers are not slow a bout taking the advantage of the glorious opportunity. Wee have sum good runners in the country as well as in town. Town runners are making visits to the country pretty regular now, and the country horses is stamping the city. Wee will have fine racing this summer, the hon. Henry watterson is a favorite with the insurgents and it will be well to keep an eye on our friend Frank Tompson he is right off of blingrass and has a good record. Don't get uneasy by the way about the John Richardson. He has a big record among the phillips.

All the lookers in the South Africa desert is saving a big role to put on that little horse, goodwin, but the favorite for a long stretch with the great crowd of horsemen is the Anderson. The insurgent gamblers will risk two to one on the old reliable Prewett. He is a blue grasser and never fails to cum under the string in good shape. don't give the sled out if you want to leave the track in better shape than when you came. There will be a young runner enter by the name of Wright and it might be safe not to overlook him. he has fine new action for his age and may prove a winner in his class. That horse Stokley has sum what of a record. He has made several long heats before and you might here something drop after all. For fear of an accident don't miss examining that O'Connell horse. He is mighty hard to holde when the bell rings. As to a quarter race that little mustang horse called Dink naver has been knocked out. Let us keep hishering the proper metin at the cooling stations and every thing will come around as squar as a pistol. My friend Jim Grigby, says herode on a trauc once that went one thousand miles in one hour. I wonder if he ant bin about the cooling stations lately. That knocks out built time. As I wish to act and he as honest as my stomach and concene will allow me I want to ask this question: I bought a new par pants the other night paying two dollars for them and putting them on I begin examining the pockets and found a new five dollar bill in the little waist pocket. The question is who put it in there, and I got a rite to keep it or not? My concene and honor goes a long ways, but I believe I can make that live go further. wel excuse me Mr. Moor has dropped in. You may know what that means. Now the hat is open for all night. Swing and set to yore best liking! All hands around. Summer get your gun. Ephubosom.

OF INTEREST TO SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS.

Important Meeting at Georgetown March 13, 14 and 15.

The State, county and district of the Kentucky Sunday School Association hold a conference at Georgetown on the above dates. The object is to promote the Sunday School interests of the State.

The State Association is interdenominational in character, being an organization of the denominations by the denominations. Its plan of work is to organize every county in the State by calling the Sunday School workers together in convention annually, and by the election of a President, a Secretary and an Executive Committee who look after the Sunday School interests of the county under the direction of the State Executive Committee and the General Secretary. The Magisterial districts are organized in the same way. This meeting at Georgetown is a conference of these workers for the purpose of improvement in their work. It is not confined, however, to these officers. All persons interested in Sunday School work, and especially pastors and superintendents, are invited. The two evening sessions and the afternoon of the last day are devoted to the work of the individual Sunday School.

This meeting is not in lieu of the annual State Convention. It meets at Louisville, August 20, 21 and 22. Any one who contemplates going to Georgetown should send his name at once to Mr. J. M. Hunt, Georgetown, and entertainment will be provided.

Going Down Hill.

People suffering from kidney diseases first of all should study the vitality. They should use no time in trying Fole's Kidney Cure. It is guaranteed. F. C. Dueson.

The President's health is much better. The nominations were confirmed by the Senate.

TO CURE THE GRIP.

Advice of a Famous Physician.

First and Foremost, REST. Take care of yourself. Your already weakened nerves want rest, and must have it. If the attack is severe, go to bed and remain there. More fatalities result from neglect of this precaution than from any other cause.

Eat sparingly. Your digestive organs are in no condition to take care of large quantities of food. Drink plenty of pure, cold water. It allays the fever, stimulates the kidneys to action and opens up the pores of the skin. Keep the bowels open with Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills.

Take three doses of Dr. Miles' Nerve per day, and if you cannot sleep take an extra dose at bed time. To further control the fever, and to overcome the peculiar aches and pains of grip, use Dr. Miles' Pain Pills. They act quickly and effectively, and had no bad effects result from their use. These remedies have been thoroughly tested more than a million times, and their efficiency is thoroughly established. They never fail to give relief.

Dr. Miles' Remedy can be found at any drug store, and they are sold on a positive guarantee that first bottle benefits or money refunded.

Prefers Country to City Life.

Rev. E. O. Guerrant visited New York recently. In a play letter to the Jesseman Journal he says: "If you want to feel really lonesome, get into a city of three millions of strangers. It took me an hour and a quarter the other day to come down town on the rapid elevated railroad, which ran over the house tops and tree tops for ten miles. There are too many people here entirely. They are in each other's way. These people ought to scatter out and go west and south."

The churches here can not hold a fifth of the people. Dr. Carter's church has 2,400 members, and could not seat them all if they came at once; so they build chapels for the overflow, and still tens of thousands are churchless. Be glad you do not live in New York. Be contented in Nicholasville. I have tried both, and settled at Williamsburg, when it was not so big and crowded as now. Here is peace, and confusion, and sin and sorrow, deepest poverty and blackest crime on every hand. Here you have more of men and less of God; there you have more of God and less of man. I prefer His company, and those like Him.

Advice For Young Men.

In a recent number of the Semaphore Evening Post, Mr. Russell Sage gives his views on saving. Very few people admire Mr. Sage; he is one of the few who is not merely a money maker, but a money hoarder. His views on the money he is worth. But you can get advice he gives is worth reading. He says:

"No matter how fast a man may make money, he will be in society as well as to him if he is economical."

"Any young man who will live in the following set of rules will be a more genuine business man than his neighbor who violates them."

"Don't let every dollar earned go to 15 cents. Save 75 cents if you can but never less than 25."

"Get up at 5 o'clock in the morning and work until 11 o'clock. Don't drop when you have in hand because it is too early."

"Be honest, always have the courage to tell the truth."

"Don't depend on others. Even if you have a rich father, strike out for yourself."

"Cultivate independence at the very outset."

"Learn the value of money. Realize that it is worth more than anything else, so the movement to your value as a citizen."

"Be jealous of your credit right. Take a wholesome interest in public affairs, but do not let politics or anything else interfere with the rigid administration of your private duties. The state is made up of individuals. It is clean and down. Don't do anything you would be ashamed to discuss with your mother."

"Don't gamble."

"Be circumspect in your amusements."

"In connection with amusements, I have never been able to understand why the young men of today denigrate the theatre as an absolute essential in seeking diversion. An evening with a good book is, or ought to be, more satisfying to the young man of brains than an evening in a hall where a lot of make-believe characters are acting up and down the stage like children at a masquerade. When the business race craves its highest mental development there will probably be no theatres."

On his arrival at Liverpool with his American bride the Duke of Manchester was served with a writ in a breach of promise suit instituted by a Miss Knight, of London.

"When I was prostrated with grip and my heart and nerves were in bad shape, Dr. Miles' Nerve and Heart Cure gave me new life and health."—Mrs. Geo. Colie, Regin 118.

The Making of Good Coffee

Begins in the growing. Anywhere between the plantation and the coffee pot the flavor may be changed, the quality spoiled by carelessness, inexperience, or unscrupulous methods. From the time Arbuckles' Coffee leaves the hands of the grower until it reaches the user in a sealed packet, it is handled with the same watchful care, the same thought for cleanliness, that you would give any article of food that goes on your table. That's the reason it costs the grocer a cent a pound more than its cheap imitations. The extra cent you pay for buys much more than a cent's worth of quality and strength. A pound of Arbuckles' Coffee will give you more cups of better coffee than you would get from other package coffees.

ARBUCKLES' Roasted Coffee

Be sure you get Arbuckles' Roasted Coffee. Other package coffees are but imitations of Arbuckles'.

In each pound package of Arbuckles' Roasted Coffee there is a list of articles. With each package in which the list is found the purchaser has bought a dollar's worth of goods to be selected by him or her from the list, subject only to the condition that the signature on the package is to be cut out and returned to our Sales Dept. You should see this list. Address all communications to

The oldest inhabitants in Madison county say that this is the longest drought during the winter in their recollection.

The Farmer's Wife

is very careful about her churn. She scalds it thoroughly after using and gives it a sun bath to sweeten it. She knows that if her churn is sour it will ruin the butter that is made in it. The stomach is a churn. In the stomach and digestive and nutritive tracts are performed processes which are exactly akin to the churning of butter. If it is not apparent then that if the stomach churn is "sour" it ruins all which is put into it? The evil of a foul stomach is not the bad taste in the mouth, and the foul breath caused by it, but the corruption of the pure current of the blood and the dissemination of disease throughout the body. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes the sour stomach sweet. It does for the stomach what the washing and sun bath do for the churn—absolutely removes every tainting or corrupting element. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whisky or other intoxicant and no narcotic.

BAD BLOOD, BAD COMPLEXION.

The skin is the seat of an almost endless variety of diseases. They are known by various names, but are all due to the same cause, acid and other poisons in the blood that irritate and interfere with the proper action of the skin.

To have a smooth, soft skin, free from all eruptions, the blood must be kept pure and healthy. The many preparations of arsenic and potash and the large number of face powders and lotions generally used in this class of diseases cover up for a short time, but cannot remove permanently the ugly blotches and the red, disfiguring pimples.

Eternal vigilance is the price of a beautiful complexion on such remedies are relied on.

H. T. Burt, 1000 Lakes Avenue, St. Louis, Mo., says: "My daughter was afflicted for over six months with a skin eruption on her face, which resulted in a permanent scar. She was treated with arsenic and potash, but recovered no better. Many medicines were prescribed, but with no result, until we used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. After the first bottle she was perfectly cured. She began to bloom, and her complexion is now as good as new. She is now seventeen years old, and a token of our everlasting gratitude has been received."

S. S. S. is a positive, unfailing cure for the worst forms of skin troubles. It is the greatest of all blood purifiers, and the only one guaranteed purely vegetable.

Bad blood makes bad complexion. It makes the skin red, itchy and inflamed, and makes the old and makes new, rich blood.

The Ashland Daily News, a Republican sheet, has joined the innumerable caravan of newspapers that have moved to the mysterious realm. Help... Nature

Babies and children need proper food, rarely ever medicine. If they do not thrive on their food something is wrong. They need a little help to get their digestive machinery working properly.

SCOTT'S EMULSION OF COD LIVER OIL WITH HYPOPHOSPHITES will generally correct this difficulty.

If you will put from one-fourth to half a teaspoonful in baby's bottle three or four times a day you will soon see a marked improvement. For larger children, from half to a teaspoonful, according to age, dissolved in their milk, if you so desire, will very soon show its great nourishing power. If the mother's milk does not nourish the baby, she needs the emulsion. It will show an effect at once both upon mother and child.

A farmer drifted into a hardware store and was asked by the manager: "Don't you want to buy a bicycle to ride around your farm? They're awful cheap this spring; can give you one for $30." "I'd sooner put $30 in a cow," said the farmer. "But only think," replied the manager, "how foolish you would look riding round your farm on a cow." "Oh, I don't know," said the farmer, "no more foolish, perhaps, than I would milking a bicycle."

Resolved, That the Secretary be directed to communicate with the Postmaster General and our Representative in Congress from this District the desire of this body."

Had His Own Girl.

One of the churches in a little Western town is so fortunate as to have a young woman as its pastor. She was called to the floor of the parsonage and saw there a much embarrassed young farmer of the German type.

"Do you desire minister life in diabolism?" she said.

"Yes," replied the fair pastor.

"Well—then I want to kiss her!"

"To get married? Very well, I can marry you," said the ministeress, encouragingly.

"O, but I got a girl already," was the disconcerting reply.—Brooklyn Life.

W. C. Couper Passes Away.

Mr. William C. Couper, who had been for years connected with the freight department of the Southern Railway, Louisville, Ky., died at 9:30 o'clock Monday morning, March 4, of pneumonia, at his home, 734 Fourth street.

Mr. Couper was a native of Scotland, but came to America many years ago and has lived in Louisville most of his life. He was a member of the Scottish Society and of several musical organizations.

For several years Mr. Couper's health had been bad and his death was not unexpected when he was taken ill of pneumonia a short time ago. Mr. Couper began at the bottom in the railroad business and worked his way to the position of chief clerk in the office of the General Freight Agent of the Southern. He was fifty years old, and leaves no family except his widow.

Twenty-six years ago Mr. Couper was a citizen of this city and was in partnership with Messrs. W. T. Tyler and E. F. Robertson in the manufacture of handies. He is remembered as a bright, intelligent man, full of business, a fine singer and member of the Baptist church. Mrs. Couper has the sympathy of friends here.

Filipino Belles.

Arthur Fitzpatrick wrote to his sister in this city several weeks since. We clip a few items. He was at San Isidro, P. I.

"We have very few amusements here and time hangs heavily on our hands. Our only pastime is trying to talk to Filipino 'belles' whose lips and teeth are blood red from chewing betel nuts; they think it quite nice but I can't see it that way. You should see their dresses, too; short sleeves, low neck and skirts that stop just below the knee. No shoes or stockings ever disgrace their feet and legs, but men, women, girls and children all go barefooted."

"Say, but we had a good time Thanksgiving and a swell dinner, but we had to substitute chicken for turkey, as we could not get the latter. There was a ball game and a Filipino band that made beautiful music."

"The scrapping is about over, I think, but our duties are pretty hard, anyway. We have to drill, guard and scout duty, and in all our time is pretty well filled up. You asked about my time, well, it will be out the 31st of October, 1901, and I may then stay here awhile longer."

Trembling Nerves

Are hungry nerves—nerves that are starved until they have no vitality left. They have lost all power to regain their natural strength and steadiness. You who are restless, nervous, fidgety, depressed in spirits, worried, worn-out and sleepless, should feed your nerves. Build them up and give them new life and strength before they fail you entirely. Now is the time to do it; and the best food you can use is

"My daughter was so nervous that she trembled all the time, and at night she was so restless that she slept but little, frequently twitching and jerking while asleep. She had been growing worse for some time when we began giving her Dr. Miles' Nervine. The first night she rested well, and five bottles made her nerves as strong and steady as they ever were."

Twelve Great Men.

Two hundred men, Kentuckians, who the Lexington Herald judges the most competent, were asked to name twelve greatest of Kentucky's dead. They were asked to count as Kentuckians those who were born elsewhere but came to and lived in Kentucky; those who were born in Kentucky but moved from, and did their life's work outside Kentucky; and those who were born, lived and died Kentuckians. One hundred and twenty have answered and the majority have named Henry Clay, Abraham Lincoln, John Cabell Breckinridge, George Rogers Clark, Jefferson Davis, John Jordan Crittenden, George Robertson, Daniel Boone, Albert Sidney Johnston, Robert Jefferson Breckinridge, George Dennison Prentiss, Ephraim McDowell. These men were great in their special work, but to say they were the greatest would be a guess only. To know the greatest men is attained by the considering of every point that measures greatness.

Settled.

Pure and Bright.

With this number the Register enters upon its 36th year. During our brief editorial career we have endeavored to keep it pure and bright, and to fill its columns with only such material as should be admitted to the circle of those most cautious in rearing their children.—Richmond Register.

A Familiar Falsehood.

When a customer seeks to purchase some well-known, widely advertised, standard article, and the dealer tries to sell him something else claiming that it is a substitute to be "just as good," that dealer is guilty of flagrant falsehood.

If the substitute were just as good it would sell on its own merits and would be called for by customers instead of having to be unloaded upon them by means of falsehood and deceit.

The very fact of the comparison "just as good," proves the claim to be untrue. We measure up, not down. We measure the less by the greater. Therefore, some unknown or little known article is ranged up for measurement by a well-known standard article, the very fact of such measurement and comparison, stamps the substitute as a lesser thing than the standard article with which it is compared.

But this is only half the truth. By this we prove the claim "just as good" to be a falsehood, but the extent of that falsehood is impossible to tell. Just as good means, in general, adulteration in place of purity, an uncertain quality instead of a certain quality, cheap material instead of good material. And beyond all this the adulterator may be not simply unskilful and cheap, but in some cases may be dangerous poison.

When the dealer says "just as good," ask yourself "just as good" for what? You will find in the answer to that question the motive of adulteration, which is the extra profit paid the dealer by the sale of the substitute and the imitation of standard wares. Practically the dealer says, when practicing the gentle art of adulteration, "This is 'just as good' for you, because it is a great deal more profitable for me, and anything is good enough for you which increases my profit."
